

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY – TORONTO POLICE SERVICE

The Toronto Police Service has posted a Request for Service (RFS) for the hire of contract psychologists required to conduct new constable psychological evaluations, as well as pre-hire evaluations for other public safety positions. This contract will be effective from December 1, 2017 to November 30, 2020, with an additional year of optional extension.

For full information regarding this opportunity, please consult the RFS that has been posted on the MERX web-site. Please note that the closing date for submission has been extended to August 10, 2017; nevertheless, the timeframes remain short so is important that you act promptly if you are interested in making application. Any inquiries regarding the RFS should be directed in writing to Brian G. Smith, TPS Purchasing.
