

Clinical Psychologist Position in Hamilton – Baxter Antoniazzi & Associates

Baxter Antoniazzi & Associates is a busy, well-established private practice in Hamilton, Ontario. We are located in the professional offices in Mountain Plaza (Upper James St. at Fennell Ave.). We provide psychological assessment and treatment services in the areas of clinical and rehabilitation psychology. In addition to treating a general clinical population, we see patients who have been involved in motor vehicle accidents or work-related accidents, veterans and victims of crime. We have excellent support staff who manage the booking of patients and billing.

We are looking to hire a psychologist, either already practicing independently or eligible for supervised practice to join our collegial and supportive work environment. Supervision is available.

The candidate will have a Doctoral or Masters degree in Psychology and be registered with the College of Psychologists of Ontario or eligible for registration.
