

Full Time or Part Time Clinical Psychologists Needed
Canadian Forces Base Borden

Through our long-standing contractual relationship with the Department of National Defence the Calian team of health care professionals provide quality care to Canadian Armed Forces members in outpatient clinics located throughout Canada.

Who are we looking for?

- a registered psychologist with authorization for autonomous practice with a provincial licensing body
- a graduate of an accredited university with a Master or Doctoral Degree in Clinical Psychology
- 2 years of post-graduate experience conducting psycho-diagnostic assessment and providing treatment for adults presenting with PTSD, anxiety disorders, and mood disorders

Why Calian?

- Collaborative clinic settings
- Time for administrative duties
- Motivated clients and diverse presenting issues
- Emphasis on work-life balance
- No overhead costs

Your Key Duties:

- Providing psycho-diagnostic assessments with an adult population including differential diagnosis
- Providing professional services related to the diagnosis, assessment, evaluation, treatment and prevention of psychological, emotional psycho-physiological, and behaviour disorders with an adult population
- Administering appropriate diagnostic tests for psychometric assessment, interpreting the results, and preparing psychological evaluations
- Reporting results and interpretations of tests, interviews, and evaluations to the multi-disciplinary team
- Providing treatment of a variety of mental health conditions for Canadian Armed Forces members using evidence-based practice including the use of Cognitive Behavioural Therapy and trauma processing therapies along with other modalities of therapy
- Participating as a member of the multi-disciplinary mental health team in case reviews
- Leading and participating in the development, instruction, and counselling during sessions for specific mental illness such as anxiety, PTSD, depression and stress management

A tour of the clinic environment can be coordinated!
