

Kleinburg Integrative Health

Kleinburg Integrative Health is looking for a Psychologist to provide services to adults and potentially adolescents as well.

We are a multi-disciplinary wellness clinic located in Vaughan, just 30-45min from Toronto. The clinic provides an integrated system of healthcare that includes naturopathic, registered massage, chiropractic, nutritional, osteopathic and acupuncture services. Online advertising and marketing are offered through the clinic along with full time reception and administrative support.

Candidates will be registered with the College of Psychologist of Ontario. Desire to work within an integrated healthcare setting is an asset. More information on the clinic is available at www.kihclinic.com.
